Choral Concert
By A Cappella
Choir Slated

Forty members of the a cappella choir of El Camino College will return from the first tour in the choir's history and will participate in the presentation of the annual choral concert in the college Campus Theater Sunday evening.
For the 8 p.m. Sunday performance, which will be free of charge to the public, the choir will be swelled to 50 voices, according to the director, R. Neil Hill.
The 20-voice madrigal singers will also perform on the Sunday evening program, Hill stated.

TRAINEE... Marine Pvt. George D. Epply, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Hope of 18425 Falda Ave., was scheduled to finish four weeks of individual combat training May 19 at the Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton.

Sponsored and financed by the Associated Students of the college, the tour opened Tuesday with a performance at St. Paul's Methodist Church in Oxnard. Appearances were made yesterday at Santa Barbara Junior College and at the Allan Hancock Junior College in Santa Maria.
The choir was scheduled for an appearance at Bakersfield College this morning and closes the tour series of programs tonight at Springville, where it will present a program at the Springville branch of the California Grange.

The rally also will feature the welcoming of 50 new members into the Torrance Club.
